The following guidelines and policies for the development and delivery of University of Montevallo (UM) distance education courses have been reviewed by the following campus entities: the Distance Education Advisory Committee, the Council of Department Chairs, the Deans' Council, the Graduate Council, the Undergraduate Curriculum and Standards Committee, and the President's Executive Cabinet. These guidelines are based on national standards broadly agreed upon by a range of education and distance education organizations (e.g., Quality Matters, Online Learning Consortium). The purpose of these recommendations is to ensure the quality and rigor of UM's distance education courses in terms of instructional delivery, learning outcomes, and student experience.

UM Distance Education

Definitions

All courses at the University of Montevallo (UM) are web-enhanced, meaning that faculty use the learning management system (LMS) to, at minimum, provide access to course documents (e.g., syllabi) and communicate with students. The University defines an online course as a course that never meets in-person; all content is delivered online through the LMS (e.g., Canvas), email, Zoom, Skype, or other internet conferencing solution. Online courses may be synchronous, asynchronous, or a combination of the two. A synchronous online course requires students to log in at a scheduled time (e.g., in order to participate in a live-streamed session). In an asynchronous online course, students may be required to meet deadlines for work submissions, but they are not required to log in at a scheduled time.

A hybrid course is a course that includes at least one traditional (in-person) meeting but meets less than 50% of the time in person.

The charts below list contact hours for traditional (in-person) and hybrid courses:

Traditional (In-Person) Delivery

Semester Credit Hours	Minimum Required Contact Minutes	Corresponding Number of 50-Minute Class Sessions (M-W-F)	Corresponding Number of 75-Minute Class Sessions (M-W & T-TH)	Corresponding Number of 150-Minute Class Sessions (once/week)

3	2250	45	30	15
2	1500	30	20	10
1	750	15	10	5

Hybrid Delivery

Semester Credit Hours	Minimum Required Contact Minutes	Corresponding Number of 50-Minute Class Sessions (M-W-F)	Corresponding Number of 75-Minute Class Sessions (M-W & T-TH)	Corresponding Number of 150-Minute Class Sessions (once/week)
4	50-1499	1 - 29	1 - 19	1 - 9
3	50-1124	1 - 22	1 - 14	1 - 7
2	50-749	1 - 14	1 - 9	1 - 4
1	50-349	1 - 7	1 - 4	1 - 2

Technical Recommendations

The technical recommendations for delivery of distance education courses vary from minimal requirements to sophisticated and costly components. Listed below are the vendor's recommendations for minimal production. The recommendations are provided in generic terms without the intent to endorse particular brands or products. The software recommendations provided are for the UM-approved software.

Canvas System Requirements

Screen Size

Canvas is best viewed at a minimum resolution of 800x600. For viewing Canvas on a device with a smaller screen, we recommend using the Canvas mobile app.

Operating Systems

- Windows 10 and newer
- Mac OSX 10.10 and newer
- Linux - chromeOS
- Mobile Operating System Native App Support

Computer Speed and Processor

- 1GB of RAM
- 2GHz processor
- Internet Speed Minimum of 512kbps

The most up-to-date list of basic computer system requirements to use Canvas can be found here.

Zoom System Requirements

- An internet connection – broadband wired or wireless (3G or 4G/LTE)
- Speakers and a microphone – built-in or USB plug-in or wireless Bluetooth
- A webcam or HD webcam - built-in or USB plug-in
- Or, a HD cam or HD camcorder with video capture card

The most up-to-date list of system requirements to use Zoom can be found here.

Numerous technology tools are available to facilitate distance education. For purposes of consistency, accuracy, quality and ease of use, the Distance Education Advisory Committee (DEAC) recommends the following:

- Logitech webcam (C525 most highly recommended) if an external webcam is needed.
- Zoom (for recording video)
- Camtasia (for editing and captioning audio or video)
- Adobe Acrobat DC for published documents.

University Commitment

The University will:

- Provide distance education faculty and students access to reliable and appropriate technologies for carrying out the instructional goals of distance education courses (i.e. a stable, password-protected platform for delivering content).
- Provide distance education faculty and students appropriate levels of training and training materials related to the use of distance education technologies.
- Provide distance education faculty and students with a pre-course assessment tool that allows students to determine their preparedness to take a distance education course (i.e. preparedness in terms of skills, knowledge of technologies, & learning styles).
- Provide distance education faculty and students access to a centralized technical support center that provides timely assistance on technology questions and problems.
- Provide a course coding system in the published schedule of course offerings that allows instructors and departments to flag courses as online, distance education (live-streamed remote instruction), hybrid, or traditional (in-person) format.
- Provide distance education faculty and students with digital access to library services, materials, and resources.
- Provide distance education students with access to remote administrative and support services: enrollment services, financial aid services, bookstore services, advising and counseling services, and disability support services.
- Provide distance education students with timely information on the technical equipment and skills required for success in the distance education courses offered at UM. This includes information on how to log in to the University's learning management system (e.g., Canvas) and the University's system.
- Provide access to an online orientation of the learning management system (LMS) for students enrolled in distance education courses and programs of study at UM.

Student Commitment

Students who enroll in distance education courses at UM are expected to:

1. Take the initiative to learn about the technical equipment and technical skill requirements for the course in advance of the course start date and access training materials related to the course technologies when and where appropriate.

2. Ensure they have consistent and reliable access to the online environment and have a backup plan in place to prevent incomplete or late assignments. Instructors may choose not to accept incomplete or late assignments resulting from technology issues that are not widespread events.
3. Complete the given “Online Readiness Assessment” indicating preparedness for taking an online or hybrid course (i.e. preparedness in terms of skills, access to required technologies, and learning styles).
4. Adhere to the UM Student Code of Conduct which can be found in The Fledgling (student handbook).
5. Use UM email and Canvas Conversations (Canvas’ messaging system) for the duration of the distance education course and check both frequently (preferably daily) for course communications.
6. Review details of the course syllabus by the first day of the start of the course, taking note of all course requirements, including any synchronous meetings.
7. Pay the full cost of each course prior to the first day of classes as required by UM policy.
8. Drop or withdraw from a distance education course according to the procedures, policies, and deadlines established for traditional (in-person) courses.
9. Demonstrate participation in a given distance education course within the first week of the class or become immediately eligible for an administrative drop/withdrawal.
10. Maintain weekly participation that provides an indication of “attendance.”
11. Respond to instructor-initiated emails and inquiries within a timely manner (within two working days unless a different timeline is stipulated).
12. Understand that frequent participation in a distance education course (i.e., completing assignments, responding to emails, posting messages, taking course exams, etc.) is a requirement for UM classes. A student who fails to participate in a course for three weeks is subject to an administrative withdrawal.
13. Access Solution Center services for the duration of the course as needed.
14. Voice concerns about courses to the appropriate instructor, and follow the University’s student complaint process as outlined in the Student Code of Conduct found in The Fledgling (student handbook).
15. Access enrollment services, financial aid services, bookstore services, advising and counseling services, disability support services, library services and other college resources as needed.
16. Complete and submit the University course evaluation available at the end of the semester.
17. Understand the Academic Rights of Students as outlined in the Student Code of Conduct.

Guidelines

Acceptable Use Policy

Use of University computing resources is a privilege extended to authorized students, employees, alumni, and other individuals for legitimate purposes related to education, public service, research, and administration. By using any University computing resource, the user agrees to abide by all applicable laws, copyright and licensing requirements, and University policies.

Users of University computing resources further agree not to utilize those resources for illegal, malicious, or destructive purposes or intentionally damage or disrupt any University computing resource or process.

Users of University computing resources further agree not to engage in cyber bullying. Cyber bullying is an act of aggression that intentionally intimidates, harasses, or imposes a reasonable fear of harm to an individual or the individual's property. Cyber bullying may also impose a clear disruption of the daily activities of an individual through malicious, hateful, threatening or harassing digital information and/or digital communications, including, but not limited to, LMS, text, instant, and email messaging; cellular telephone communications; social media forums; and Internet chatrooms, blogs and other postings.

For students, failure to comply with these regulations will result in disciplinary action including but not limited to restrictions, suspension, probation, expulsion, and legal or civil action. For employees, failure to comply with these regulations will result in disciplinary action including but not limited to restrictions, reprimand, suspension, termination and legal or civil action.

Additional restrictions may be imposed by the department providing access to computer resources. For additional information regarding the appropriate and authorized use of University computing resources, please see University of Montevallo Use of Information Resources.

ADA Statement

The University of Montevallo provides equal opportunity to qualified students. If you have a disability (medical, physical, learning, psychological, etc.) and wish to request disability-related accommodations to complete course requirements, contact Disability Support Services (located in Main Hall, rear entrance; 205-665-6250). Course requirements cannot be waived, but reasonable accommodations may be provided based on disability documentation and course objectives. Accommodations cannot be made retroactively.

Attendance in Distance Education Courses

A student who fails to participate in a course for three weeks in a row is subject to administrative withdrawal.

In a distance education context, documenting that a student has logged into an online class is not sufficient, by itself, to demonstrate academic attendance by the student. A school must demonstrate that a student participated in class or was otherwise engaged in an academically-related activity such as contributing to an online discussion or initiating contact with a faculty member to ask a course-related question.

According to the US Department of Education Federal Student Aid Handbook, examples of acceptable evidence of academic attendance and attendance at an academically-related activity in a distance education program include:

- Student submission of an academic assignment
- Student submission of an exam
- Documented student participation in an interactive tutorial or computer-assisted instruction
- A posting by the student showing the student's participation in an online study group that is assigned by the institution
- A posting by the student in a discussion forum showing the student's participation in an online discussion about academic matters
- An e-mail message from the student or other documentation showing that the student initiated contact with a faculty member to ask a question about the academic subject studied in the course.

Academically-related activities do not include the following:

- Living in institutional housing
- Participating in the school's meal plan
- Logging into an online class without active participation
- Participating in academic counseling or advisement

Course Evaluation

Department chairs are responsible for the oversight and quality of distance education courses offered in their program areas. Students will be provided with a digital means for evaluating distance education courses.

Identity Verification

Subject to change based upon findings of the Data Governance Committee.

In order to verify that the student who registers for an online or hybrid course is the same student who participates in and completes the course and receives academic credit, students must use a secure login and pass code to access course material. Faculty may also require proctored examinations and/or make use of technology that is effective in verifying student identity.

All methods of verifying the identity of students enrolled in distance education courses must protect the privacy of students' information as stated in the University Faculty Handbook, Section 4.13, Confidentiality of Student Records and Policy 01:211 – Privacy of Student Data.

Currently, there are no additional charges associated with verification of student identity. However, a student can expect to pay fees to the online proctoring service associated with an exam that the student schedules late and/or for a missed exam. If in the future a fee is imposed, students will be notified in writing at the time of enrollment.

Personally identifiable information collected by the college may be used, at the discretion of the institution, to verify identity. For example, a student requesting that his or her learning management system password be reset by the Solution Center will be asked for two or more pieces of personal information for comparison with personally identifiable information on file. No passwords will be reset via email.

Identification Cards

Subject to change based upon findings of the Data Governance Committee.

Each University of Montevallo student is required to obtain an official ID card that displays the student's photograph. The card is required to use the library, receive financial aid, and take advantage of the services and activities at the University. Students may apply for a UM ID card in person at the Solution Center in Carmichael Library or online at solutioncenter@montevallo.edu.

Loss or theft of cards should be reported to the Solution Center (this can be done through the GET app) and to the UM Police Department. A student who uses the ID card in an illegal manner will be subject to disciplinary action.

Privacy of Student Data

Subject to change based upon findings of the Data Governance Committee.

As provided for in the Faculty Handbook Section 4.13, Confidentiality of Student Records, all employees must familiarize themselves with the provisions of FERPA. Faculty and staff are responsible for complying with FERPA and are required to review FERPA information and successfully complete the FERPA quiz. In accordance with this policy:

- Faculty will not publicly post any grades or personal information for any student. Faculty who wish to make grades available online are urged to use the password-protected student grade book in Canvas and email accounts. Each student has distinct password-protected Canvas and email accounts. Students reset their passwords by calling the Solution Center at 205-665-6512.
- To further protect the privacy of students, all faculty must contact students using either University email or secure Canvas messaging.
- No student personal information, other than directory information as defined by FERPA, will be stored on faculty or staff personal devices or University owned devices, mobile or otherwise, which do not contain at least 128 bit encryption software such as BitLocker.
- In the event of theft or loss of a device that contains student data, faculty will report the loss to University Police, the Solution Center Manager or Information Services & Technology Asset Manager, and the Provost/Vice President for Academic Affairs.
- Online gradebooks other than the one in Canvas must be password protected and/or encrypted to ensure the security of student data.
- A student may provide written consent to release personally identifiable information which names the party or class of parties to whom disclosure may be made and what information may be released. Such documentation shall be maintained by the Registrar.

- University employees who have access to student records must report any improper requests for access to student records to their supervisors.

Proctored Exams

For the foreseeable future, decisions related to proctoring exams, quizzes, or other assignments for distance education courses are handled by individual faculty members. The University does not have a policy governing the use of testing centers, contractual proctors, computer cameras, etc. Some colleges may adapt their own policies. A student can expect to pay fees to the online proctoring service associated with an exam that the student schedules late and/or for a missed exam.
